

CONSTITUTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY

We the Members, having assembled in a formal membership meeting, in order to provide an organizational framework for those in Outagamie County who share our beliefs do ordain and establish this constitution for the Republican Party of Outagamie County.

This constitution nullifies, supersedes, and takes precedence over any previous constitutions that were used prior to its effective date. The effective date shall be on the day of, and immediately prior to, the 2020 RPOC County Caucus.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Republican Party of Outagamie County, which may be abbreviated as RPOC.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this organization shall be to coordinate and unify under one central organization the activities of Republicans in Outagamie County. The RPOC shall advance Republican principles in the county, advance those principles in local, State, and National Republican Parties, and recruit and help elect Republican candidates to public office.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Members

Membership in the organization shall only be open to Outagamie County residents of voting age who are eligible to vote in any national, state, or county election and who believe in the following objectives:

- A. To preserve and advance fundamental Republican principles and policies.
- B. To develop an aggressive and serviceable county Republican organization.

CONSTITUTION OF
THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY

- C. To maintain harmony among all Republican organizations.
- D. To maintain control of the Republican Party of Outagamie County in the hands of grassroots Republicans.
- E. To preserve our republican form of government as created under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin.
- F. To elect Republicans to public office.

A Member shall pay dues and meet the membership requirements of the constitution and bylaws of both the Republican Party of Outagamie County and the Republican Party of Wisconsin. No one who is a member of another political party registered with the Federal Elections Commission or the State of Wisconsin Elections Commission may be accepted as or remain a Member of the Republican Party of Outagamie County.

SECTION 2. Associate Members

Individuals who otherwise meet the requirements for RPOC membership but are not residents of Outagamie County or who are not of voting age may become Associate Members. Associate Members have no voting privileges and may not serve as delegates or officers of the RPOC.

SECTION 3. Dues

An individual may not be a Member or an Associate Member in the Republican Party of Outagamie County unless he/she has paid dues required by the organization.

Membership dues are charged annually for a period beginning on September 1st and ending on August 31st of the following year.

A member's dues must be postmarked or received prior to September 1st of that membership year or the member will neither be eligible, in that membership year, to vote in the annual Republican Party of Outagamie County Caucus nor be eligible for election as a delegate from Outagamie County to the District Republican Caucus or the Republican State Convention.

CONSTITUTION OF
THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF OUTAGAMIE COUNTY

SECTION 4. Membership Termination

A member may resign by submitting written notice to the Chair. The Chair shall inform the Executive Committee of the resignation at the next Executive Committee meeting. The resignation shall become effective at the conclusion of that meeting.

Membership may be involuntarily terminated by a two-thirds majority vote of a quorum of the Executive Committee with appropriate notice. A person whose membership has been terminated by vote of the Executive Committee may appeal that action to a Meeting of the Membership.

ARTICLE IV. ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. Officers

- A. Officers - The RPOC Officers shall be a Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer. Each Officer must be a member of the Republican Party of Outagamie County.
- B. Nomination of Candidates for Offices - The Chair shall appoint a Nominating Committee of no less than five individuals from among the members of the organization and these appointments shall be confirmed by the Executive Committee at least sixty days prior to a scheduled election. The Nominating Committee shall receive applications from Members for each Officer position to be elected and, after their consideration, report to the Executive Committee the name(s) of one or more nominees for each office to be filled. This report must be submitted to the Executive Committee at least thirty days prior to the scheduled election. The Executive Committee must accept or modify the list of nominees and distribute the final list to the Members at least fourteen days prior to the scheduled election. At the County Caucus, the Chair of the County Caucus shall invite members to nominate other candidates for election to each Office.

- C. Election and Term of Office - Officers shall be elected in each odd numbered year by a majority of voting members assembled at a duly constituted County Caucus of the Republican Party of Outagamie County. Each Officer shall be elected for a term beginning immediately upon adjournment of the Caucus at which he/she is elected. He/she shall hold office for a term of two years and until his/her successor is elected. Officers may be removed from office for cause by disciplinary proceedings as provided in the parliamentary authority.
- D. Duties of the Chair - The Chair shall be the principal executive officer of the RPOC subject to the direction of the Executive Committee and Membership. The Chair shall have general supervision and direction of the business and affairs of the organization. The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Committee, over the County Caucus and over any other Meetings of the Membership. The Chair shall be responsible, in conjunction with the other Officers of the organization, for the development of a biennial budget for the organization to be presented at a meeting of the Executive Committee no later than forty-five days after the County Caucus in odd-numbered calendar years. The Chair shall serve as an ex-officio member of all committees of the organization except the Nominating Committee. The Chair shall appoint the
